

A step fails two separable ways

78.5% of globally-wrong steps are arithmetically perfect

They sit in the top-left cell, and nothing on the right-hand axis reaches them.